Bauer rates every federally-insured credit union with the same strict standards, and is pleased to report that Peninsula Federal Credit Union continues to come out on top. What's more, credit unions, like Peninsula Federal Credit Union, understand that in order for them to thrive, their members must thrive, explains Karen Dorway, president of BauerFinancial. "That translates to loyalty and dedication to its membership, a commitment to work together toward a better tomorrow. At Peninsula Federal Credit Union, this commitment comes naturally, because its employees and members share much more in common than a financial institution."

Established in 1941, Peninsula Federal Credit Union has carried that dedication to its members for 82 years. Making connections and supporting members has been its hallmark since its inception. Being rated 5-Stars by Bauer, the best, most trusted and most convenient place to go for a validated, statistical review of your credit union's financial strength, is the fruit of its labor.
